header in their last appearance of the yesterday, Richmond taking battle easily, by 6 to 2, while not believe now members of the cinil as now easitiured. Many changes have the last thirty days, but the pleture licelure most of the men.

The first game the coils, who pitched for the champions safe at every point, while Pitcher Jordan proved a plut with Pitcher Jordan was serviced to pitch for the Colts, proving a very easy mark, while big Loukek, the Day Louke, the Day Louke was caught at the plate, but they falled to break the ega-row. The lings until the last round, while the Louke was caught at the plate, but they falled to break the ega-row. The lings until the last round, while the last round, while the last round, who will be plut the plut with the plut with the plut was a louked the last third consecutive biff in the sixth, while Walsh contributed his third consecutive biff in the sax divided the locals of one and possibly two or more runs in the preceding inning.

How Lot and the Louke was little sense that the last try for a run Heffron led the locals of the last with the little was clean that the little was clean divided by the last try for a run Heffron led the last three straight from the first inning, and not a bag was stolen, though the very same team had possibly two or more runs in the preceding inning.

Both team played fast and fault-less ball in the first game, but in the second game was clean and fast, i

The First Game.

In the first game the Colts got their hits in blocks of four, and realized two runs in one case and three in another, while the fifth run was the result of a pass, a single and a sacrifice fly.

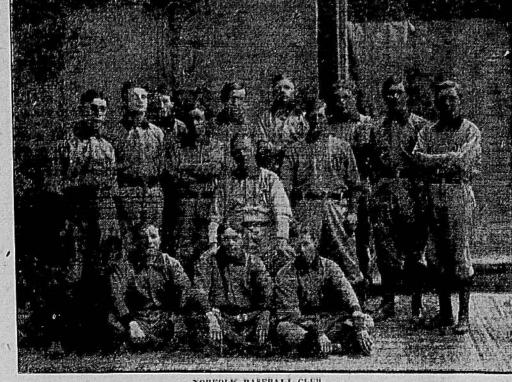

Norfolk opined like winners, Dingle was hit by Stackpole and Manlon sacrificed. Saltz flew out to Heffron, and Jackson's double to right tallied Dingle. Griffin gave Heffron another put out.

gle. Griffin gave menton another particular out.

Richmond did not score until the third inning, though Walsh poked out a hit in the second. Heffron started the pyrotechnics in the third with a single to right; Reeve did the sacrificial role as cleverly as usual, and Titman cracked a two-sacker to left, scoring Heffron, Wallace hit to centre, but Jackson fielded the ball to the plate and cut off Titman, Wallace taking second on the throw in. Siebrie's single scored Wallace, but Gettig's crive was fielded to first by Manion.
